

I phoned Channel 64 in Cincinnati, and informed them that if the so-called "documentary" is aired before the election I have every intention of boycotting the station, but if aired after the election it is okay with me. This is a blatantly political piece disguised as "news."